Ripplette

THE NEW RIPPLE ROUGH-DRY FABRIC.

The Colored Ripplette is yarn dyed and absolutely fast. Its peculiar weave gives it a firmness and wearing quality unequalled by any other fabric made.

It will not crawl or stretch, and is made in all colors and shades, including the season's latest effects, both in solid and combination stripes.

The pure white comes in a number of patterns, in ripple stripes and corded effects. All colors are absolutely fast.

Ripplette is particularly adapted for shirt waist suits, shirt waists, house dresses, kimono and summer suits for boys and girls. It is a desirable fabric for summer wear, as it requires no ironing.

It is 28 inches wide and sells for 15c yard. (Dress Goods Department)

Woolen Dress Goods

Wool Taffetas, Striped Mohair, Serges, Panama, Ottoman and Basket Weave Cloth, representing the season's latest shade effects. Some with very fine hair-line effects. 50c, 70c and $1.00 yard.

Ginghams and Percales

New Spring patterns in Checks and Plaids, come in very effective stripes, at 12 1/2c yard.

ARTS AND CRAFTS.

Varied and Valuable Collection in Exhibit Arranged by Woman's Club.

The Willimantic Women's club, which is always trying to provide some form of entertainment that is helpful and instructive, strove away from the beaten path and furnished an innovation in the form of an Arts and Crafts exhibit in the club rooms on Main street from 7 to 9 o'clock Tuesday.

The exhibit was the finest ever shown in this city and comprised many articles, both hand made, many of which were almost priceless. The exhibit was divided into several departments, each of which was almost a complete work of art. The exhibit was divided into several departments, each of which was almost a complete work of art.

A special exhibit of old fashioned lace and quilts from Scotland came in for a great deal of comment. In the lace exhibit, a table of work showing about 100 years old, done by a little girl. Another exhibit was a fine collection of old embroidery, which had been made over the world.

George F. Taylor and Mrs. J. A. McConnel, who were the donors of the exhibit, were the donors of the exhibit. The exhibit was divided into several departments, each of which was almost a complete work of art.

Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John Putnam—$10,000 Needed to Grade and Pave Main Street.

John Putnam has returned to New York after spending two weeks with his father, William Putnam, of this city. Misses Mildred Carver, Lillian Morse and Alva Adams were recent Worcester visitors.

Miss Mada Morse of Upland, Mass., has been engaged to teach the school at East Putnam in place of Miss Mildred Armstrong, resigned.

Jonas Lawson has purchased the May property in East Woodstock. He is a physician at the Day-Kimball hospital this month.

Celebrated Golden Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. John Putnam of South Woodstock celebrated their golden wedding at the Swedish church, March 28, 1911.

Unclaimed Letters. Letters addressed to the following persons remain unclaimed for at the post office: John Gillard, Stowell company, Miss Ida Brown, Mrs. O. Manley, Mrs. R. Power Co., who was working on a pole at Bugbee's corner, attempted to stop the runaway, but the horse swerved to the right and headed down Pomfret street, where it was stopped by a fireman.

New Knife Switches. Linemen have been at work on the poles near the railroad station and on the poles near the station. Knife switches have been put in place, which will permit the shutting off of the electric current for repairs to the lines without the necessity of shutting down the entire system.

April Directories. The directories for April of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the Westfield Congregational church are Mrs. W. O. Jacobs, Mrs. Cosner Young, Mrs. E. C. Smith, Mrs. W. L. Willard, Mrs. Eliza Ayer. The meeting today will be held in the church vestry.

New Pastor for Methodist Church. Rev. Elliot F. Studley, who was appointed at the conference this week to the pastorate of the Methodist church here, will assume his duties at the church next Sunday morning. The parishioners have arranged to give him a most cordial welcome. Mr. Studley comes direct from a very successful pastorate at Bourne, Mass. He is a young man, a native of New York, and has a wife and two daughters, the older 10 years of age. He is a graduate of Brown university, Providence, R. I., and has been in the ministry since 1907.
